

The Boggle Hole Pirates

Words & Music by Roy Blackman

We're off tonight from Robin Hood's Bay
In a moonless black we will steal away
O'er the old North Sea, on the gypsy main
Not a word Billy Banner, not a word

Hush, hush, the smugglers cry
Now our lips are sealed for the coast is nigh
We'll be rich tonight or we'll all swing high
Not a word Billy Banner, not a word

In Amsterdam on the dot of nine
We will load the whisky and the wine
The cigar smoke rings will look fine!
Not a word Billy Banner, not a word

Hush, hush, the smugglers...

The women there they look so grand
But keep away, they have all been banned!
You'll bring something back more than contraband
Not a word Billy Banner, not a word

Hush, hush, the smugglers...

By Boggle Hole, a pile's been lit
By a sheltered house, ay, a tiny spit
And there we'll drink to William Pitt
Not a word Billy Banner, not a word

Hush, hush, the smugglers...
